

Article Delivery Service (ADS)

General Information

Articles or chapters from non-electronic journals, newspapers, or books held in any University of Iowa Library (with the exception of the Law Library and Curriculum Lab) can be scanned, delivered electronically, and available for viewing for 14 days. If an article is available through a subscribed e-journal, the link to the article will be provided. Fair use and copyright laws will be applied to each request. Microform material over 20 pages in length may require additional time for electronic delivery or will be held in Media Services for check-out or use. Articles or book chapters over 50 pages in length may require additional time for electronic delivery or may be processed as delivery requests and held for pick-up at one of the University Libraries. Information on how to request material for delivery to another University of Iowa library can be located at:

<http://www.lib.uiowa.edu/forms/deliveryrequest.html>.

Eligibility

ADS is available to faculty, staff, and students at the University of Iowa, excluding the College of Law.

Costs

There is no direct charge to users for this service. Any charges are paid by the University Libraries.

Time needed

Materials will be delivered within 3-5 business days. Additional time may be needed if large quantities are turned in all at once. Articles or book chapters over 50 pages or microform material over 20 pages in length may require additional time for electronic delivery, unless processed as a delivery request and held for pick-up.

Submission of requests

Please submit requests by logging in with your HawkID and password at <https://illiad.lib.uiowa.edu/logon.html>. If you are a first-time user of the system, you must first register after logging in. If you do not know your HawkID, you can do a web look-up at <https://login.uiowa.edu/uip/hawkid-lookup.page> or contact the ITS Help Desk at 319-384-4357 or the HCIS Help Desk at 319-335-6500. A single journal article or book chapter is considered one request – if you have multiple article or book chapters, you will need to submit a request for each article or chapter title.
