

Tell Me a Story:

Making and Learning From Documentary Films

Marlene Booth

Award-winning filmmaker Marlene Booth, born and raised in Iowa, looks back—with clips from her films—on 35 years of filmmaking, as a woman, a feminist, and a dyed-in-the-wool Hawkeye.

Tuesday, March 22, 2011

Reception at 4:00 pm; talk begins at 4:30 pm

Iowa Women's Archives (3rd floor, Main Library)

Please join us for this event in celebration of Women's History Month sponsored by the Iowa Women's Archives, University of Iowa Libraries, the University of Iowa Chief Diversity Office, and the University of Iowa History Department.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires an accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact the Iowa Women's Archives at 335-5068 in advance.