

Fall 2020

The University of Iowa Libraries' Main Library Gallery will offer in-person visits by appointment as well as online learning materials during the Fall 2020 semester.

Appointments are available Monday – Friday between 9:00am and 4:00pm.

How to Access Our Services

- Class visits and individual/small group visits to the Main Library Gallery will be available by appointment. Anyone is welcome to book a visit.
- Sara J. Pinkham, exhibition and engagement coordinator, can arrange in-person class visits tailored to meet instructors' needs and can also provide support for students working on Gallery-related assignments. A selection of exhibition materials will also be available to view online.

- Public programming will be offered online via Zoom, as applicable.

When You Visit the Main Library Gallery In-Person

- Please be sure you have scheduled an appointment at least 1 week in advance if you are planning a class visit, particularly if you would like a guided visit with a curator. (Availability of guided visits depends on availability of staff.)
- Please be sure you have scheduled an appointment at least 3 business days in advance if you are planning an individual or small group visit.
- Wear a face covering and follow university COVID-19 guidelines.
- Personal protective equipment (PPE) will be available in the North Lobby just outside of the Main Library Gallery: hand sanitizer, disposable masks.

COVID-19 Health & Safety Measures

Staff working on-site to provide any in-person services will follow proper social distancing and cleaning practices:

- Staff will wear face coverings.
- Any visitors will be asked to wear face coverings.
- Measures will be taken to reduce or eliminate social contact in shared spaces.
- Face coverings and hand sanitizer will be available to users visiting in person.
