

The University of Iowa Council on the Status of Women presents:

Re-examining the Pelvic: Women's Health from a Recent Historical Perspective

A lecture with questions and reception to follow

by

Wendy Kline, PhD.
Professor of History
University of Cincinnati

Iowa Women's Archives, Main Library
Tuesday, May 1 @ 4pm

Prof. Kline is the author of two books: Bodies of Knowledge: Sexuality, Reproduction and Women's Health in the Second Wave (University of Chicago, 2010), and Building a Better Race: Gender, Sexuality, and Eugenics from the Turn of the Century to the Baby Boom (University of California Press, 2001). Her talk will examine the late 20th-century controversy regarding pelvic examination instruction in American medical schools.

This talk is co-sponsored by the Iowa Women's Archives, the Rhetoric Department, the UI History of Medicine Society, Women's Resource and Action Center, the History Department, and Gender Women's and Sexuality Studies.

People with disabilities are encouraged to attend University of Iowa Events. If you require special accommodations to attend this event, please contact the IWA at 319-335-5068 so that we can make the necessary arrangements.
