

Microform Sets for Historical Research

The great untapped source of primary historical materials for history researchers in this area is the vast collection of microform sets held in the UI Libraries and the UI Law Library. This document lists sizable microform sets of potential interest to history researchers.

In order for the UI Libraries online catalog to be useful, researchers normally need to already have a particular microform set in mind and be looking for it specifically by its title. And substantial items within some microform sets are often not represented in the UI Libraries online catalog at all. This document attempts to help researchers locate otherwise hard-to-find microform--with some limitations. It lists only microform sets of potential interest to history researchers. It lists only microform sets that are "sizable," that is, those consisting of more than 6 reels of microfilm, or more than 40 microfiche, or more than 200 microprints or microcards. Some sizable runs of magazines and journals on microform are not listed in instances where the researcher would anticipate a fair chance of the UI libraries owning it, and where checking on it and finding it present no difficulties.

Pages 7-34 list brief titles of sets acquired as of April 1992, meanwhile conveying their location and size, along with broad designations as to their field(s). Pages 2-6 serve as a broad subject index to those titles. By using the subject index -- or by simply scanning the subject headings on pp. 7-34 -- researchers can begin to find their way to those sets which hold forth promise of particular interest to them.

Note #1. The library holds two copies of a guide which covers Series I and Series II-- and also Series III, 1850-1900, which is a microfilm set the library does not hold. One copy of the guide is in the reference collection (fZ6951/H65), the other in Media Services; notations in the latter make it the more useful. The guide contains a very sketchy subject index. The Reference Department also holds a good subject index to Series I. See also item c in Microprint Sets, below.

Note #2: The library also holds a huge collection, containing many microfilm sets, entitled Manuscripta, in Main Media Services. It embraces rare and out of print books in the Pius XII Memorial Library, St. Louis University. A contents list is in a book: Ref./Z7837/M3. The sets in the collection are shelved under various accession numbers.

I b. Numbered microfiche sets

(Located in sections of Media Services accessible to the public, mostly in cabinets half way back. Having the accession number is helpful, though often not essential, in locating them.)

I d. Microprint and microcard sets

(Located in Media Service's stacks, shelved in boxes containing about 200 prints or cards each. Request by title.)

Acc. no.	Subject	Subject designation
a	Early American Newspapers, an ongoing project of the American Antiquarian Society aimed at reproducing all of some 2000 American newspapers through 1820; the list is based on C.S. Brigham, History And Bibliography Of American Newspapers, 1690-1820 (2 v. Ref./Z6951/B86). Some 270 newspapers, on microprints filling 210 boxes-- along with most recent additions to the set on microfilm, shelved adjacent-- are on hand now (1989). Currently, the best way to know whether a given newspaper is included is to ask for, and check, an index available in Media Services.	Colonial, US 1776-1815, US 1815-77
b	Early American Imprints: First Series (Evans) 1639-1800 (app. 31,000 cards) and Early American Imprints: Second Series (Shaw-Shoemaker), 1801-1819 (app. 52,000 cards). This is the Am. Antiquarian Society's attempt, reputedly successful, to reproduce "the complete text of every existent (non-serial) book, pamphlet, and broadside (including sermons) printed in (territory now) the United States" during the years indicated. Access to desired items in the 1639-1800 portion involves extracting an "Evans number" from the listing of items in Charles Evans American Bibliography... (14v.; Ref./Z1215/E92; and Bristol's supplement). Items in the 1801-19 portion are listed in the card catalog by author and title, wherein "Shaw-Shoemaker numbers" are supplied, though I have found the card catalog to be not wholly reliable in this respect. A backup method is to draw a "Shaw Shoemaker number" from R.R. Shaw and R.H. Shoemaker, American Bibliography... (22v.; Ref./Z1215/S48). Evans and Shaw-Shoemaker numbers are used to locate the document in the microprint sets.	Colonial, US 1776-1815, US 1815-77
c	Early American Periodicals, Index to 1850 (8 boxes). This provides access via subject and other approaches to 340 American magazines published roughly from 1730-1860. It emanates mostly from a WPA project and reproduces index cards, some in longhand, done in the 1930s. A guide is in Box 1. See also Note # 1 in numbered microfilm sets, above.	Colonial, US 1776-1815, US 1815-77
d	Lenin To Khrushchev: The USSR In Retrospect . 11 boxes, cards 1-2034 thus far; set still being produced(?). Index/checklists in book form are in Media Services. "...collection of pamphlets (many in English) compiled over a period of more than fifty years....arranged into two main categories: external affairs and internal affairs...begun in 1926 by the then American-Russian Cultural Association in New York." (S.C. Dodson, ed., Microform Research Collections... 352-53)	R e	Russian Historical Sources, First Series . 5,355 cards app. 32 boxes. "This collection of some 500,000 pages was sponsored by the Committee on Documentation of the (AHA) and consists of a selected group of sources considered vital to research in Russian History." (Dodson, 475-76) For further guidance, see card catalog at "Russian Historical Sources."	R
f	Russian Historical Sources, Second Series . We seem to have ordered only specific titles from among this series; we hold about 1000 cards of 13,518 total. "The collection of about 900,000 pages has been divided into two sections: 'Publications before 1917' and 'Publications since 1917.' Each title was considered for its unavailability in original form in the western world and its value in the furtherance of Russian studies." (Dodson, 475-76). For further guidance, see the card catalog at "Russian Historical Sources, Second Series."	R
g	Spanish And Portuguese Bibliographies . 7 boxes. I could find no descriptive materials concerning this set, nor could I find it represented anywhere in the card catalog or shelf list. Labels on boxes name authors from Spain, Portugal, Latin America, and the Philippines.	EUR, LAm, SA
h	Corporate Annual Reports, 1951-56. App. 6000 reports for about 1500 companies. See also Business Library microfilm 25293 and microfiche 519	US 1920-
